WHISTLEBLOWER COMPLAINT #WB-2024-0042

Date Filed: January 15, 2024

Filed By: Anonymous (Employee ID redacted)

Department: Finance - Accounts Payable

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

I am writing to report what I believe to be a systematic fraud scheme operating within our company's procurement division. Over the past 18 months, I have observed several irregularities that I believe warrant immediate investigation.

KEY INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED

1. Marcus Chen - Senior Procurement Manager

- Has been with the company for 7 years
- Oversees vendor relationships and contract approvals
- Recently purchased a luxury property in Monaco despite modest salary

2. Victoria Blackwood - CEO of Nexus Trading Ltd

- External vendor, supplies 'consulting services'
- Company registered in British Virgin Islands
- Invoices lack specific deliverables

3. David Okonkwo - Accounts Payable Supervisor

- Approves payments without proper documentation
- Frequently processes urgent payments outside normal procedures
- Close personal relationship with Marcus Chen

SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTIONS OBSERVED

Between March 2023 and December 2023, I noticed the following payments to Nexus Trading Ltd:

Date	Amount	Description
March 15, 2023	€125,000	Strategic Consulting Phase 1

May 22, 2023	€180,000	Market Research Services
July 8, 2023	€95,000	Operational Advisory
September 30, 2023	€210,000	Integration Support
November 12, 2023	€150,000	Strategic Consulting Phase 2
December 20, 2023	€275,000	Year-End Advisory Services
TOTAL	€1,035,000

ADDITIONAL CONCERNS

- Nexus Trading Ltd was added as a vendor by Marcus Chen without standard onboarding
- The company has no website, no LinkedIn presence, no verifiable business history
- Bank account for Nexus is at First Caribbean International Bank, Tortola
- Victoria Blackwood's signature appears to match Marcus Chen's handwriting
