

FORENSIC ACCOUNTING ANALYSIS

PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL

Prepared for: GlobalTech Industries Board of Directors

Prepared by: Harrison & Associates, Forensic Accountants

Date: March 20, 2024

Reference: GTI-FRAUD-2024-001

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Our investigation has identified a fraudulent invoice scheme resulting in losses of approximately €1,035,000 over a 10-month period. The scheme involved the creation of a fictitious vendor and the processing of fraudulent invoices for non-existent services.

FUND FLOW ANALYSIS

1. ORIGINATION

- Fraudulent invoices created by Nexus Trading Ltd (BVI)
- Approved by Marcus Chen (Procurement)
- Processed by David Okonkwo (Accounts Payable)
- Paid from GlobalTech Industries operating account (Deutsche Bank Frankfurt)

2. FIRST LAYER

- Funds received at First Caribbean International Bank, Tortola
- Account holder: Nexus Trading Ltd
- Funds held 2-3 days before transfer

3. SECOND LAYER

- Funds transferred to Cayman National Bank
- Account holder: Sapphire Investments Ltd
- Approximately €1,000,000 total transferred

4. FINAL DESTINATION

- €2,450,000 used to purchase Monaco property
- Property held by Azure Horizon SARL (Luxembourg)
- Beneficial owner: Victoria Blackwood

KEY FINDINGS

1. Victoria Blackwood is a fictitious identity. No record of this person exists in UK databases. The passport used for company formation is believed to be forged.
2. Marcus Chen's personal bank account (HSBC UK) shows deposits totaling £45,000 from unknown sources in 2023, inconsistent with his salary.
3. Phone records indicate 847 calls between Marcus Chen and a UK mobile number registered to 'V. Blackwood' between January 2023 and February 2024.
4. The meeting at The Wolseley occurred on April 12, 2023. CCTV footage has been requested.